

Free eBooks!

These sites feature free eBooks in multiple formats including EPUB. The books on these sites will work with most of the popular eReader devices including Amazon Kindle, Barnes & Noble Nook, Borders Kobo and Sony Reader.

Feedbooks.com (www.feedbooks.com)

This site offers thousands of classic public domain books from 19th century & early 20th century authors. The site also features original books distributed free from new authors. Books are available in EPUB, PDF and Kindle format.

Manybooks.net (www.manybooks.net)

This site has over 28,000 free titles. There are thousands of classic public domain books from 19th century & early 20th century authors. The site also features a large quantity of early science fiction from the 1950's. Books are available in over a dozen formats including EPUB, PDF and Kindle format.

Mobileread (www.mobileread.com)

Mobileread features extensive forums on various eBook & eReader topics. The forums are a great place to learn about eBooks or ask questions of other users. The site also features an extensive section of public domain classic eBooks Formatted in EPUB, PDF and Kindle format.

Project Gutenberg (www.gutenberg.org)

Project Gutenberg is the first and largest single collection of free eBooks. The site's founder Michael Hart invented eBooks in 1971. Over 100,000 free public domain works are available in multiple formats including EPUB, PDF and Kindle format. The site is not for the novice user however. Go to: riezone.lib.overdrive.com to access 15,000 of the most requested Gutenberg titles through the Ocean State Libraries E-Zone digital download service.

Access Free eBooks through the library at: riezone.lib.overdrive.com

